

Monday 11th July 2022

Dear Parents/ Carers,

My apologies that our letter is out late this week. Our Friday Inset Day was followed by a rather special Retirement Party and I didn't quite manage to fit in writing the letter as well! Thank you to all parents who allowed their children to take part and who waited patiently to pick them up when their beautiful concert over-ran. I had a lovely evening and felt very lucky and very spoilt!

The letter is quite brief – just including the important dates for the next two weeks. We did not hold our assemblies on Friday so the stars of the week will be in next week's letter.

Dates for this coming week

News and Information

Parents Evenings

Parents should have collected their child's report last Thursday. If you haven't yet collected it, please do so this week- and I remind you that we hand them over to parents only, not to the children.

We do not usually hold Parents Evenings in the Summer term, but due to the fact we had to have virtual meetings in the Autumn because of a Covid Outbreak, we felt it was important to offer a further opportunity to meet with your child's teacher this academic year.

If you haven't booked an appointment via ParentMail, please do so. If you are having any difficulties, please speak to the office staff and they will support you.

Hot weather

The very hot weather is forecast to last over the next week, so please remember to send in your children with water and a sun hat. Please apply sun cream on your child before school and KS2 children do not need to wear ties.

Grenfell update

Grenfell Tower
Memorial Commission

‘Remembering Grenfell – our journey so far’ – Grenfell Tower Memorial Commission report

In its report, published on Monday 16 May, the Memorial Commission shares the ideas it has heard so far on what a future memorial could look like. The views of more than 2,000 people are reflected in the report.

The report is a significant step towards a memorial to all those who lost their lives in the Grenfell Tower tragedy. The Memorial Commission will be continuing to have conversations with bereaved families, survivors and the community so that their views on a memorial are heard.

And finally

I hope that you have had a lovely weekend and see you on Monday!

Best wishes,
